

Hiring a Professional Fundraising Auctioneer & Consultant?

What you think you're paying for:

- Someone who can call an auction

What you're actually paying for:

- Someone who can get on stage and maximize your items' values while promoting your cause

Plus:

- Provide consulting throughout the year for your event
- Design and conduct a winning fund a need
- Answer any questions surrounding your fundraising efforts
- Provide professionally trained bid assistants
- Organize a timeline to maximize your event revenue
- Put your auction items in their most effective order
- Training on donor development
- Training on procurement
- How to set up your venue to maximize returns
- Auction event marketing techniques
- Access to several revenue enhancers to increase your event's bottom line
- How to run the most successful silent auction
- Which items you should be obtaining for your audience
- How to effectively check-in and checkout attendees
- Committee consultations
- Volunteer training
- Access to exclusive auction items
- Licensed and bonded auctioneers
- Event follow-up meeting

Still think that hiring a professional auctioneer is expensive?

YOU GET WHAT YOU PAY FOR – So if you hire a cheap auctioneer or go with a volunteer, don't be surprised when your results aren't what you wanted!

Please share this and help spread the message so that non-profits and schools can raise the most revenue possible for their great causes.

